If you ever had a grown man
Let me put you in a grown man business
If you ready for a grown man
Lay back and get this grown man business

If you ever had a grown man
Let me put you in a grown man business
If you ready for a grown man
B I'm about my grown man business

You tell me you like him, 'cause he's young but wild
So you can't control him 'cause he's always out deep in the streets
And when he comes home he don't help with the bills or car note, no
And although he got a young back, he don't know
About that real stroke that you really need

I bet you thought that age was just a number
But baby, nowadays it makes me wonder
Why he let's you down at the wrong time?
You're at a stage where you trying to make moves
And he plays you out like a small child
I bet his age got a whole lot to do with it

When the lies and games he runs on you get old
Baby, I'm right here
And whenever you're ready for grown man love come
on
I'm right here
And when you decide that little boys finish girls
Girl, come here
Get back and get this grown man business girl
'Cause it is right here

If you ever had a grown man
Let me put you in a grown man business

He's not really man enough to take care of home
You need that security, somebody sexy and grown
He spends what he can, but mama I gives all I have Just check my track record baby, everything I do is first class

I thought you knew

I bet you thought that age was just a number
But baby, nowadays it makes me wonder
He let's you down at the wrong time
Girl, I can see that you're out of his league but Plays you out like a small child, so if you're ready for me

When lies and games he runs on you get old
I'm right here
And whenever you're ready for grown man love, come
on
I'm right here
And when you decide that little boys finish girls
Girl, come here
Get back and get this grown man business girl
'Cause it is right here

I got all you need
So make up your mind
And have it the way you like
If you do choose me
I'll promise you, you'll never go back

When lies and games he runs on you get old
I'm right here
And whenever you're ready for grown man love, come
on
I'm right here
And when you decide that little boys finish girls
Girl, come here
Get back and get this grown man business, girl
'Cause it is right here

I'm right here
I'm right here
I'm right here
I'm right here
Ooh, yeah
