Where are the other fish in the sea?
That she said would be waiting for me
Now that she's gone

How many times have I cried?
How many times have I wished I could die?
It hasn't been that long

Oh how I wish she would call
The little bit of her I had
Is better than not having her at all

Chrous:
But now it's too late
She's gone now
Thought she loved me, thought she cared for me
It's hard to believe that it's over now
I try not to miss her
But she's not here laying next to me
It's hard to believe that it's over now

Wherever she is, am I crossing her mind?
Or is she somewhere having a good time?
Now that she's away from me

What if I had begged her to stay?
Would she have left me anyway?
Is this the way it should be?

Cuz oh how I wish she would call
The little bit of her I had
Is better than not having her at all
Cuz now it's too late
She's gone now
Thought she loved me, thought she cared for me
It's hard to believe that it's over now
I try not to miss her
But she's not here laying next to me
It's hard to believe that it's over now

Was it a waste of time? (Was it just a waste of time)

How could she leave it all behind?
Cuz I know she won't be coming back again
Don't know where to start (Falling apart)
And how do I mend my broken heart?
How do I mend my broken heart?

Cuz it's too late
She's gone now
Thought she loved me, thought she cared for me
It's hard to believe that it's over now
I try not to miss her
But she's not here laying next to me
It's hard to believe that it's over now

Chrous out
