Blessed be the day, she's the finest I've ever seen Cut from the finest cloth of human being
And bein' in her presence is like the first day of spring
And whenever I'm in her arms I hear the angles sing

She moves, she's so graceful, she commands respect
And ooh she's so well put together like she's drawn by an architect
And all of the mistakes that I made before in my life
All fall by the way-side now that she's mine

I know she's more woman than I've ever seen
She says that she wants me, she says that she needs
me
I know she's more woman than I'll ever need
She says that she love's me, she'll never leave me, well

Blessed be the way she handles herself
That's why I'm givin' my heart to her and no one else She knows how to please me, she knows how when and where
She knows the right things to say, let's me know she cares

She moves, she's so graceful, she commands respect
And ooh she's so well put together like she's drawn by
an architect
And all of the mistakes that I made before in my life
All fall by the way-side now that she's mine

I know she's more woman than I've ever seen
me
I know she's more woman than I'll ever need
She says that she love's me, she'll never leave me, well

This woman make my heart beat twice
When we makin' love in the car late night, let my soul take flight
Apple of my eye, let me take a bite, I wanna know what you taste like
I ran through all of them

From the Marcia Brady type to Ben Stiller married
To a hood rat chick, rockin' fatigues like the military
From the streets of killa-cali to the shores of tripoli
Dr. Jays on the coture from Italy, yo

I sip a kiss like a glass of wine
I take control in the bedroom 'cause that ass is mine
I'll count the freckles on ya face just to pass the time You're serenaded by an ill rhyme, mastermind 'Cause you're more than a lover, there's more to
I had to get myself in order just in order to love ya
From head to toe, I had to get you know
I usually don't get down like this but you special though

I know she's more woman than I've ever seen
me
I know she's more woman than I'll ever need
She says that she love's me, she'll never leave me, well

I know she's more woman than I've ever seen
me
I know she's more woman than I'll ever need
She says that she love's me, she'll never leave me, well

I know she's more woman than I've ever seen
me
I know she's more woman than I'll ever need
She says that she love's me, she'll never leave me, well
