Whenever the world gets me blue
All I have to do is think of you
And all the things you do
Whenever the dark clouds come around
You chase away my blues and turn my frown upside down

Chorus:

Do you know
How I feel in my heart
Does it show
When I hold you don't wanna let go
Till the flowers stop growing, the rivers stop flowing
I'll do all that I can till you know

Whenever the wind begins to blow
You are the sunshine that melts the snow
Oh, everywhere you go
Whenever the sky begins to storm
You are the shelter that keeps me safe and warm

Chorus

Do you know
How I feel in my heart
Does it show
When I hold you don't wanna let go
Till the flowers stop growing, the rivers stop flowing
I'll do all that I can
Till the flowers stop growing, the rivers stop flowing
Till the wind stops blowing
I'll do all that I can till you know
