When dogs begin to walk
And humans learn to heal
Then all these things you mock
Might finally make you feel

(chorus)

When birds fall from the sky
And buffalo sprout wings
Then miracles can be denied
With each false face you bring

(chorus)

When suns refuse to rise
And moons no longer shine
Then will you be surprised

If water isn't wine

(chorus)

Ring like a bell- aim like William Tell- sting like an angry bee-
Sleep like a baby
Time will tell if what you say is true
Time will tell- it can't pretend that one is really two
That hot is really cool
That red is really blue
That I am really you

Time will tell.....(fade)
