We sat and watched the sun come up
With a blanket wrapped around us
We spend all night out on that beach
Couldn't hold her close enough to me

That was love I won't forget
And I still remember what she said
She called me Kansas
She said that I reminded her of home
She called me Kansas
And I know I've never been there
But it's a place I love to go

The April air, the crescent moon
Two wild hearts with nothing to lose
That weekend was all we had
But what I'd give for two more days like that

She looked at me and said goodbye
And kissed my lips one last time
She called me Kansas
She said that I reminded her of home
She called me Kansas
And I know I've never been there
But it's a place I love to go

Kansas, I'll always remember
Kansas, I hear your name
And I am with her

She called me Kansas
She said that I reminded her of home
She called me Kansas
And I know I've never been there
But it's a place I love to go

Kansas, she said that I reminded her of home
She called me Kansas
And I know I've never been there, oh, no
Kansas, she called me Kansas

Kansas, yeah

It's a place I'm gonna go
Kansas
