Oh yeah

She says, "Don't stare at me" She's afraid that I might see those five extra pounds she talks about Man, I don't know what she's talking about She looks through magazines
With every page she dreams of looking like somebody else
I wish she wasn't so hard on herself Then she falls asleep with just my t-shirt on But even when her hair's messed up and her makeup's gone

You can't hide beautiful, you can't hide wonderful There's nothing that she has to do, it just comes natural
She makes it look easy, I love what she does to me
No way to disguise the way that she shines, you can't hide beautiful, oh no

She can take a simple dress, put it on and turn some heads
Man, every time she moves she gets me
She doesn't even know she's sexy
And the way she think sometimes out of nowhere blows my mind
She makes me laugh and makes me dream
I love the way she looks at things
A little piece of heaven God gave to this world
She might think she's just an ordinary girl

But you can't hide beautiful, you can't hide wonderful There's nothing that she has to do, it just comes
She makes it look easy, I love what she does to me
No way to disguise the way that she shines, you can't
hide beautiful, oh no
You can't hide beautiful, oh no

She makes it look easy, I love what she does to me
No way to disguise the way that she shines, you can't

hide beautiful, oh no
You can't hide beautiful, oh no
She's so beautiful, oh
You can't, you can't, you can't beautiful Oh yeah, can't hide beautiful, baby
