(Waking) Here I am
(Sleeping) Here I am
(Dreaming) Here I am

(Waking, Sleeping, Dreaming) Here I am

Always I was here now I speak to you
Just have no fear You don't know how much
You miss by not knowing yourself
Do you run the risk? Here is the self that speaks
To you and will never fade away

Here I am (2x)

They are the three states
(Waking, Sleeping, Dreaming)
In which the one's aware
The common fact: I am,
This feeling's always there
The world is like a sheet of paper
On which something's typed
The meaning and the reading
Will vary with the reader

All is the self, all is myself
All is you and yours there's nobody else
I am one and appear as many
