Look impossibly into finally depts of you
You rip my fucking love out
You rip my fucking love off

There is a beat behind within my soul
You take away my brandness and all my control
My heart is somewhere flowing I don't know what I do
Please forgive me my dear I can't stop loving you

There is a beat behind that's makes me running to you
There is a beat behind I do not know what I do
There is a beat behind that's makes me running to you
There is a beat behind I do not know what I do

I can't stop loving you
Please forgive me

I can't stop loving you
Please forgive me
Hopes burning up my soul, please forgive me
Brain loses control, please forgive me

Alive!
This is the time I really feel alive
If I have to go, I hope you hold me tight
That's all you ever really need to know
I feel alive, I never want to go

Alive
This is the time I really feel alive
If I have to go, I hope you hold me tight
That's all you ever really need to know
I feel alive, I never want to go

I cannot change the feelings from my head
Is there an angel or a devil in my back
Anyway I feel alive, I start to pray
But nothing makes this feelings going away

There is a beat behind that's make me running to you
There is a beat behind I do not know what I do

There is a beat behind that's make me running to you
There is a beat behind I do not know what I do

Alive

This is the time I really feel alive
If I have to go, I hope you hold me tight
That's all you ever really need to know
I feel alive, I never want to go

Alive

This is the time I really feel alive
If I have to go, I hope you hold me tight
I feel alive, that's all you ever really need to know
I feel alive, I never want to go
