I never thought it'd end like this, you walking away so innocent, the way you said everything right (oh so right)

Stop and wait a minute, you'll find out you'll never get it, greed and charm left alone

Watch this grow, one spark start makes a fire, uh oh, oh no, start slow

Watch this grow, dont forget to make a difference, we know, we know, were gunna make a difference.

your words left sad and left behind tonight, and you thought you were mister right, you know its time when everything wrong's gone right (what's wrongs gone right)

Stop and wait a minute, you'll find out you'll never get it, greed and charm left alone

Watch this grow, one spark start makes a fire, uh oh, oh no, start slow
