Verse 1:

I've got a sea of flowers,
but all these hours are just mine alone, no one's home.
Buy me the finest china,
each time I dine, it's always me alone, with the heater on.

Left to your own devices, a master of disguises, why is that not surprising?

It's like you're Midas.

Chorus:

Oh, all I see is gold, all I see is gold.

Oh, all I see is gold, all I see is gold.

Verse 2:

You're probably somewhere sunny,
and I'm here wondering if you dream of me, while you're by the sea.

Of all the people passing, your face appears in every one I see,

but you're not with me.

And now i just can't tell if that's just the way you felt when we were just beginning;

you've turned to Midas.

Chorus:

Oh, all I see is gold, all I see is gold,

Oh, all I see is gold, all I see is gold.

Bridge:

And when you hold my hand, I don't feel anything.

all I feel is cold, and all I see is gold!

Oooh...

It's like you're Midas.

Chorus:

Oh, all I see is gold, all I see is gold,

Oh, all I see is gold, all I see is gold.

Oh, all I see is gold.

All I see is gold, all I see is gold...
