The day is lost
Forgotten
Scenes of
The way we were
And I know
I know
I know
It shows

You took my Heart for
Everyone to see
I'll dare to
I'll dare to
I'll dare to
Breathe

Laid out
Bleeding
Images
Burned through
And phased out
Phased out
Phased out
Of me

If I could
Share your
Tears would
You fall asleep
And in dreams
And in dreams
We'll wake

Straight to my heart
You might be might my last chance to show
And somehow I'll always
Show I am falling
Don't say this means nothing to you

You've taken apart
All I believe that I know

And somehow I've always
Known I have fallen
Without you is nothing at all

The day is lost
Forgotten
Scenes of
The way we were
And I know
I know
I know
It shows

If I could
Share your
Tears would
You fall asleep
And in dreams
And in dreams
We'll wake

Straight to my heart
Show I am falling

You've taken apart
All I believe that I know
Known I have fallen
Without you is nothing at all

Straight to my heart
Show I am falling

You've taken apart
All I believe that I know
And somehow I've always
Known I have fallen
