And I am war after ten years of fighting
I am there after every time you hear bad news
I am not a flame with seven years of lighting
And I need you just like they do

And I am windows breaking in the airplanes
When nothing comes out quite how it was meant to
I am what you're feeling in your neck veins

Did you get to feel him near?
Did you get too fond of losing sleep, my dear?

I am more invisible than you could ever be (you could ever be)
I am what you wanted and you're everything I need
If you think I'm so terrible (terrible)
Then you are not aware see,
I, I am better this way

I am what you're feeling when you're nervous
I am what you're hearing when you walk away
But better music has given me a purpose
And we want this so bad

You are the only thing that just might save me
Oh, the thought of it just makes me crazy
Why did you have to be so persuading?

Did to you get to feel him here? (feel him here)
Did you get too fond of losing sleep, my dear?

I am more invisible then you could ever be (you could ever be)
And I am what you wanted and you're everything I need
If you think I'm so terrible (terrible)
Then you are not aware see,
I, I am better this way

You've got to get away
You're running after your name
I think I'll do the same

And get you out of this town

I am more invisible then you could ever be (you could ever be)

And I am what you wanted and you're everything I need

If you think I'm so terrible (terrible)

Then you are not aware see,

I, I am better this way

I, I am better this way
