You've got that kiss of death
And I'm not attracted to alcoholic veins
The way you love your cigarette more than me
Is driving me insane
I hate my eyes for loving you
You're not worth love
So lust is what I'll blame

Oh I am dark and I am scary
Do you think of me at night?
The way I make it even colder,
And send shivers down your spine?
The truth is never easy here,
Its time, no lies,
Make up your mind

I've got my lions den
It's there to put you in
Don't say that your sick,
That your sick of it
And think that you can get away,
Get away with it

Your heart is nothing,
Are you ready to give in?
Don't say that your sick,
That your sick of it
And think that you can get away,
Get away with it

You know that I can't love you but
I'm dying just to keep you alive

HA!

Your single mind sees truth and happiness
With wedding rings of gold
My double vision sees unhappiness
While you're lonely and getting old

I can't swing your heart from loving something

I can't even see
I can live with only oxygen
But oxygen can't live with me

I've got my lions den
It's there to put you in
Don't say that your sick,
That your sick of it
And think that you can get away,
Get away with it

Your heart is nothing,
Are you ready to give in?
Don't say that your sick,
That your sick of it
And think that you can get away,

You know that I can't love you but

I know you're desperate
Don't get too desperate
To get it wrong
We're so far along
I know you can't handle it
My hands can't handle it for very long
If we're right or wrong
I don't know

I've got my lions den
It's there to put you in
Don't say that your sick,
That your sick of it
And think that you can get away,

Your heart is nothing,
Are you ready to give in?
Don't say that your sick,
That your sick of it
And think that you can get away,
Get away with it

I've got my lions den
It's there to put you in
Don't say that your sick,
That your sick of it
And think that you can get away,
