I'm asked to walk her to her car at night,
That's my job when it's dark outside,
But what she really wants, is to be by my side.

I'm her blanket when it's five degrees,
It's so cold we can see when we breathe,
What she really wants, is to be next to me.

I'll be her shelter where we wait,
For a cab standing in the rain,
And it never seems to bother me.

I'm not giving in, your not calling it quits.
We have it too good now.
And we, oh we love it how.
I've been looking for, you've been waiting for
Somebody just like this
And we have it now (have it now)
And we, make it easy somehow.

Oh she's my music when I'm trying to sleep,
When I forget the words, she knows everything
What I really want, is to hear her sing (hear her sing)

She's my feet when I cannot dance,
She just loves it and she doesn't laugh,
And what I really love, she says I'm not so bad.

Your the one that keeps the two of us from going overboard,
I can see, that you are good for me,
We're the ones who will change love to what it used to be,
So simple(so simple), so sweet

I don't wanna let you go, something I should know
I don't wanna let you go, anymore.

I'm not giving in, your not calling it quits.
We have it too good now.
I've been looking for, you've been waiting for
Somebody just like this

And we have it now (have it now)
And we, make it easy somehow.

I'm not giving in, your not calling it quits.
We have it too good now.
And we, oh we love it how.
I've been looking for, you've been waiting for
Somebody just like this
And we have it now (have it now)
And we, make it easy somehow.

We, make it easy somehow
