You ready? Yep

Little lady on the moon close your eyes
You can dream about the fire while resting in tonight
Protect your heart
Close your eyes

I will calm my racing heart and my mood
I will listen to the shadow lands and brace what's coming true
Calm my heart
Close my eyes

Love only knows why the fire is a fire and it burns from letting go
Steady as she goes
And I never stare
But she blinds me with her beauty, I never dare
Dare to have a doubt
'Cause I'd rather be blind, I realized, while the fire

What a rush you were the cavalier
The modern man will make it disappear
And I will take your words of wisdom dear,
Your modern man will never reappear
Protect my heart
Close your eyes

Love only knows why the fire is a fire and it burns from
Steady as we go
And I never stare
Cause you blind me with your beauty,
And I never dare
Dare to have a doubt
'Cause I'd rather be blind, I realized
'Cause I'd rather be blind, I realized, while the fire
While the fire was out
