Jesus Christ, what have I done I find it hard to justify each time I try to solve just one my problems seem to multiply now it's just too late to wrap a smile around my face

(2x)
this is propaganda
you know, you know

I tried to make it go away and I have tried the best I can it's been around for nights and days they say it's only in my head now it's just too late to wrap a smile around my face

(2x)
this is propaganda

(7x)
this is propaganda

this is propaganda
