Maybe in the years to come
I'll truly understand
Though I try to hold on tight
I feel it's slipping through my hands
Time can fly so fast they say
When you are having fun
So why does it feel like it's over
Before it's begun

mmm

Now I don't know where I will go from here
Cause without you I'd rather go nowhere
You, you colour my days
I'll treasure this memory always

You brought light to the darkness
You brought rain to the desert
You got under my skin
Now I'm believing in myself again
You have changed my direction
So much love and affection
And I will keep you safe
So deep within
And given the choice I know I would
Do it all over again

Who knows what the future holds
It's written in the stars
Letting go is how you know if something's really yours
I know there's a road ahead
The journey will go on
But if letting go is so right why does it feel so wrong
Yeah

Now I don't know where I end and you begin
It's hard enough breathing out and breathing in
You, you colour my days
I'll treasure this memory always

You brought light to the darkness

You brought rain to the desert
You got under my skin
Now I'm believing in myself again
You have changed my direction
So much love and affection
And I will keep you safe
So deep within
And given the choice I know I would
Do it all over again

Ooh do it all over again
Yeah

Now I don't know where I end and you begin
It's hard enough breathing out and breathing in
You, you colour my days
I'll treasure this, I'll treasure this
And I'd do it all over again

Yeah, Yeah, Do it all over again

You have changed my direction
So much love and affection
And I will keep you safe
So deep within
And given the choice I know I would
Do it all over again

You, ooh

You, too much love, too much love
(Do it all over again, Ooooh)
I would do it all over again
Yeah, Yeah, Oh
