Ohhhhh

Ohhhhhhhhh

There is no short cut to a dream

But I am not afraid I'll take it all the way

I'm gunna give more than it takes

Work harder than the rest till I'm the very best

Ohh you think youv'e got it all figured out

You think ur so damn cool what's that all about

But I've got mime just watch this space

And you just wait

Hold up a mirror you should see yourself

You think your so much better than everybody else

But I've got time just watch this space

And you just wait

There's something deep inside my heart

Burns with a thousands flies

So relentess my desire

I see a future shine so bright

Beyond the finish line

I'm gunna make it mine

Ohh you think youv'e got it all figured out

You think ur so damn special what's that all about

But I've got mime yh watch this space

And you just wait

Hold up a mirror you should see yourself

You think that you wont stumble like everybody else

But I got time just watch this space

And you just wait

You bring your best

I'll be one step ahead

Your tears will fall

You'll be falling instead

Ohhhh you just wait

I'm not afraid

And I'm not backing down

Shut up your eyes

And it's coming around

Wait x10
