Britney Spears ' A Song About You '

actually its

I know you hear me on your radio
Well here we go
Please turn up your radio
Wanna tell you somethin
Hear me on your radio
Well here wo go
Please turn up your radio
Wanna tell you somethin

There was a time
I used to think That love would never turn into reality
I never thought I'd find the one
But I tell I'm drawn to you a strength of none

You must be from heaven, baby, yes you are
Your love is like a shooting star
So they can try but they can't touch ( touch )
You gotta look up to us

Cause your love is outta this world ( oooh )
how you bring me down to earth
I love how you put me first ( oooh )
Make me feel my every word
Cause I'm sayin, you know this is about you
I keep sayin you know this is about you
there'll always be
This is about you
Our love is here to stay
there'll always be a song about you Forever, everyday
there'll always be a song about you

I'll be your moon
I'll make it bright
And when it's dark I promise that you'll see the light
And just as far as the moon is from the sun

That's how long that I'll be here And it's because

Your love is like a shooting star
So they can try but they can't touch

You gotta look up to us

Cause your love is outta this world ( oooh )
How you bring me down to earth
I love how you put me first ( oooh )
Cause I'm sayin, you know this is about you

In my sky
We're the stars
I'm on bliss
You're all mine
people cant
Understand
how im you're girl and you're my man, yeah

In my sky
I'm on bliss
people cant
Understand
how im your girl and your my man (my man)

Cause your love is outta this world ( oooh )
I love how you put yeahme first ( oooh )

Cause I'm sayin, you know this is about you
Forever, everyday
