i look at you and know itll all be right you seem to have a way but it always ends up in a fight dont you know ill always be by your side in me you know that you can always confide

Chorus

all i need to give you is all of my love baby i believe your sent from heaven above please come back theres many things i want to cant get it outta my mind when i make love to you never have i felt so alone now that im without you im like a dog without a bone please come back by my side ill make it all okay i need you more now than ever, i want you in everyway

Chorus

baby i believe your sent from heaven above
please come back theres many things i want to

be with me always, the love of my life ill hold your hand through happiness and strife im begging you now, please dont go no baby no, no, no, no

Chorus

baby i believe your sent from heaven above
please come back theres many things i want to cant get it outta my mind when i make love to repeat(fade to chorus)
