Turn the lights out
This shit is way too fucking bright
Wanna poke my eyes out
If you wanna mess with my eyesight
Just let me get my head right
Where the hell am I?
Who are you?
What'd we do
Last night?
Hey yeah yeah
Who are you?
What'd we do
Last night?
Hey yeah yeah

Can't remember what I did last night
Maybe I shouldn't have given in
But I just couldn't fight
Hope I didn't but I think I might've
Everything, everything is still a blur
Can't remember what I did last night
Everything, everything is still a blur (Did last night)
Can't remember what I did last night
Everything, everything is still a blur
What's your name, man?

Can you calmly hand me all my things?
I think I need an aspirin
Better yet, I need to get up outta here
I gotta get my head right
Where the hell am I?
Who are you?
What'd we do
Last night?
Yeah yeah yeah

Can't remember what I did last night
Maybe I shouldn't have given in
But I just couldn't fight
Hope I didn't but I think I might've
Everything, everything is still a blur
Can't remember what I did last night

Everything, everything is still a blur (Did last night)
Can't remember what I did last night
Everything, everything is still a blur

What happened last night?
'Cause I don't-- 'cause I don't remember
What happened?

Can't remember what I did last night
Maybe I shouldn't have given in
But I just couldn't fight
Hope I didn't but I think I might've
Everything, everything is still a blur
Can't remember what I did last night (Blur)
Everything, everything is still a blur (Did last night)
Can't remember what I did last night
Everything, everything is still a blur
