Alright
Uh, yeah

I used to be the girl everyone would talk about
I used to be the one that was one your mind
I used to be the one that would hold your hand
I used to be the one with you all the time

Hey boy, I \\m here to say, to give it to you
You boy, shouldn\\t\\ve let me go
I was the one that was here for you
You know, you\\ll never find this again

Hey boy, remember when you could hit this Ha boy, now you gonna look at this
I know you still wanna get with me
But boy, you\\re something that used to be

I used to be the girl everyone would talk about
I used to be the one that was one your mind
I used to be the one that would hold your hand
I used to be the one with you all the time

Baby, just trust me
Follow my fingers (follow my fingers)
Right down to the spot where you like it
Right down to the spot where you like it
Right down to the spot where you like it

And all you gotta do is follow my figers
Baby, just trust me
Follow my fingers, yeah
And we can have a hell of a time
And all you gotta do is follow my fingers

Well \\m not
Well \\m just not a robot
You can\\t
Lay where you like

So let\\s go
Follow me to my room

My bed
He the one I\\'m talk

My boy
No I ain\\'t giving up with you boy
Can follow me fly, fly, fly, oh yeah
You thought you had me but you fell for it (oh, yeah)

There\\'s no denying, come closer and follow my fingers
My fingers
My sexy hands
My fingers, yeah

Well, I used to be the girl everyone would talk about
I used to be the one that was on your mind
I used to be the one who held your hand
I used to be the one with you all the time

Baby, (yeah), just trust me
Follow my fingers
All you gotta do is follow my (oh, oh)

Right down to the spot where you like it
Right down to the spot where you like
Right down to the spot where you like
And all you gotta do is follow my fingers

Just trust me
Follow my fingers
We can have a hell of a time
And all you gotta do is follow my fingers
