how can u tell me its not real?
how can u tell me u dont feel... like i do.
we can save this...this is love we dont want to miss.

some questions can't be answered but how?

chorus-
how...how can u do these things to me how...i dont know how u cant see that you and I...baby, are meant to be Sometimes i think...i can move on.

but how can i do that when when my love is so strong.
i need u baby, more than u know and i try to let these feelings show.

just tell me how...how can u do this?

repeat chorus

how
how can u do this to me
how
u said we were meant to be
how
i dont understand
how
we're not still holding hands

it was a fairy tale while it lasted...and i dont know how but...
its over.
