"A Day In November"

Visit "A Day In November" on MotoLyrics.com

My life has changed - on a day in november
- i've learned so many things about myself -
but sometimes i'm sad - on a day in november
- cos I feel with all my friends - who were left behind

I've come long ways to be where I am - did all the best - all the best I can - met lots of new people who became my friends - but should it be over now yeah you became another part of me - and I wanna thank you endlessly

My life has changed - on a day in november
- i've learned so many things about myself -
but sometimes i'm sad - on a day in november
- cos I feel with all my friends - who were left
behind
