Together we can touch the sky
No mountains gonna be too high
I believe that we can fly
See it's worth a try

I believe that we can reach the top
Stick together and we'll never stop
One for all it's you and I
Spread your wings and start to fly

Come on, come on shout it out
Wave your hands scream and shout
Different races, faces, different places
Join together in unity

Put your hands up in the air
Good times are here to share
A never ending story
Ah baby won't cha give it to me

Put your hands up in the air
Good times are here to share
I really know, I really know
Ah baby won't cha give it to me

Get up stand up for our pride
This time we'll make it right
You should know that I'm by your side
Don't give up hold on tight

Come on, come on shout it out
Wave your hands scream and shout
Different races, faces, different places
Join together in unity

Put your hands up...

I see the power in your eyes
We're much closer 2 the price
All we need is strength
To make it through the storm
