"Tell me why"

Do you think - I don't know it
When you try - not to show it
Are you sure - I don't feel it
When you lie - when you lie

All I know - I can't take it
Everytime - that you fake it
Do you think - I can't make it
On my own - make it on my own

Why you never treat me like a lady
Why are you acting kind a shady
Boy you know you really drive me crazy
Tell me why
Tell me why why why ?
Are you tryin to be a bad boy
I will never ever be your lovetoy
You think that love is just a game

Tell me why
Do you think you own me
Why - you're the one that showed me
I - I could be this lonely
Why oh why
Why did you leave me high and dry
Thought that we could touch the sky
But it turned into good-bye - oh why

Yeah, Yeah you wanna get it
Yeah, yeah are you with it
Yeah, yeah let's get the business started
Two, three, four hit it

In your mind - always doubt free
Better off - without me
Paid your dues - get out be free
Walk away - Walk away

Then you run - come back to me
Tellin me - the same old story
Nothing's wrong - we should be we

Now I know - Now I know

Why you never treat me like a lady
Why are you acting kind a shady
Boy you know you really drive me crazy
Tell me why
Why why why?
Are you tryin to be a bad boy
I will never ever be your lovetoy
You think that love is just a game

Tell me why?

Rap:
So gal why ya fall
Way ya cheatin on me
Didn't I treat you nice
And didn't I give you plenty
What about all of the diamonds
And all of the pearls
I give you anything say ya
Couldn't give any other girl
So look 'pon de massive hurt
You put up upon my soul
Which of the madest thoughts
Am I allowed to control
Coulda anybody press, caress
Your body to your soul
Take a second guess
Though

You became somebody else
And you're lyin to yourself
I won't go thru this again
And here the story ends

Tell me why?
