See cigarettes and coffee ain't good for you
Now I'm on my own and it's all I do
Seem to've lost my appetite over you
Now I need to chill but my mind won't be still (Every day every day every day every day...)

Confusion is the only word left I know
Wish I had the answers why you blow hot and cold
Illusion never ending deceiving me
First thing you do, second you don't
(Every day every day every day every day...)

You build me up (you build me up)
You tear me down (you tear me down)
You're so elusive
It's not conducive
No no... for us to be one, too true we be two
Me and you and you and you and you

So many of the fakers and chancers play
You know you never get that from me, no way!

I crucify ? you know I rectify
No, no, don't ask me why
For you I live or die

Now I need no jacket
But a punch I will pack it
(Every time every time every time...)

Stop reckoning my love ain't enough for you
Now you're understanding the things I do
I die trying, it's a riot and no taboo
I need to lick it but you never stick it too long too long too long

You build me up...Bro'Sis Lyrics Index
