I've written a brand new page
It's easier when you know You're going the right way

Have
you ever thought
That if we just stopped thinking We'd get exactly what we want
What exactly do we want?
Let the record show That I've pushed through to find a new Way of seeing and hoping
And I plan on waking soon

I've
written a brand new page
It's easier when you know You're going the right way

I just never learn
It's always the same fork in the road
And I turn Without knowing where I wanna to go It's redundant but I'm hoping that it lasts

Cuz the heavier the sleep the weaker the reason to think
And
sleepless nights mean something worth being awake for

I've written a brand new page
It's easier when you know
You're going the right way

So try your best to finish your Conversations without regret Cuz left unsaid
Your soul
will start to ache
From putting up a fake facade

Just say what you wanna say

You're hopelessly bound I'm escaping this town
This train of thinking is dragging us down So tell me what my future is If I choose not to live

It's not enough
We're breaking up and out of sight Just give me some

Time to think
And it will be alright
If it was up To me we'd be just fine
Fine for tonight
