Goodbye
We're facing the same day
Over and over
(You're repeating yourself)
And it's boring me to tears
I would just like to ask
Are you owned by your fears?

What happened to the world that moved so fast?
The people in it had to abandon their pasts
Just to keep up with the progress (progress)
You're hopeless, you lost this
I'm just being honest
All of you deserve this shallow judgment

There's nowhere to go
But up from here
(But up from here)

There's nowhere to go
But up from here
(Up from here)

Take your time
Don't bother me with shallow alibi's
It's your life and your decision
To do nothing with it
So admit it now
(Admit it now)

There's nowhere to go
But up from here
(But up from here)

There's nowhere to go
But up from here
(Up from here)

Don't bother me with shallow alibi's
(And filthy lies)
Looking at you

I can see right through your eyes

(There's no, there's no,
(There's no, there's no,

Goodbye
We're facing the same day
Over and over

I've escaped this feeling,
It's back and I know that it's not right
Oh, it's not right

I've escaped this feeling,
It's back and I know that it's not right
Oh, it's not right

There's nowhere to go
But up from here

And there's nowhere to go
But up from here

There's nowhere to go
But up from here
(But up from here)

There's nowhere to go
But up from here
(But up from here)
