Luring the unsuspecting young to his private chambers Quickly seized stripped then hung a man of the church And political power reassuring no harm to silence the cries
Of those being sodomized throat slowly cut braguemard Severs the head wallowing in the warmth of the intestines Masturbating upon entrails of the dead removing pieces
Adding features previous pleasures litter the floor Disposing of others in public latrines Sex with a headless corpse the violet convulsions Enhancing the experience creating the need for more Bodies hidden under floor boards blood slowly flows from Underneath of secret hidden doors Gilles De Rais before the courts Families of the victims pray for the release of the Condemned believing him innocent discovery of more Bodies prompt the execution of Gilles De Rais
