

Broken Bones

"Killing Fields"

Violence of war, a time for mankind to fall You're already dead, you signed the papers you never read
In the Killing Fields you have to pay
The price of war when it comes your way
The price of war you're gonna pay - In Blood
Overcome the fear and take the pain

The horrors of war thrown in your face
There's no looking back, you gotta go on Clench your teeth and kill your fellow man
A diplomatic trap, fight to the last
Fear takes its toll
All the voices in your head
Said "We told you so"
