Kill yourself, don't hesitate,
Slit your wrist, don't fucking wait.
Life's a whore and then you die,
But not before you wonder why.

When there ain't a single hope,
Around my neck I'll tie a rope,
Jump from the closest fucking chair,
And hang in the air without a care.

When you're broken and hurt inside,
Just resort to suicide.
Fuck your life and fuck your health,
Just go ahead and kill yourself.

Fuck the shit your parents teach,
Search the kitchen, drink the bleach.
Drink it 'til there's nothing left,
And fall to the ground to your death.
When you're broken and hurt inside,
Just resort to suicide.
Fuck your life and fuck your health,
Just go ahead and kill yourself.

Fuck the shit your parents teach,
Search the kitchen, drink the bleach.
Drink it 'til there's nothing left,
And fall to the ground to your death.
When you're broken and hurt inside,
Just resort to suicide.
Fuck your life and fuck your health,
Just go ahead and kill yourself
