It started all for a girl who lived next door
Because of her we were friends no more
It might be funny but we fell for the same girl
It must ain't funny but we, oh, fell in love

Yeah, yeah we gotta let it go
Yeah, yeah we gotta stop this girl
She's ruined my friend
She's still ain't my friend
Don't worry, I'll never change you for a girl

It's been so long and I'm sick, sick to the point
It happended all for the wrongest choice
It might be crazy but we fought for the same girl
It might be crazy but we all needed love

Yeah, yeah we gotta let it go
Yeah, yeah we gotta stop this girl
She's ruined my friend
She's still ain't my friend
Don't worry, I'll never change you for a girl

When we see her walking down the streets
We can't breath
And when we saw her kiss another cheek
We cannot believe we argued for that girl

Yeah, yeah we gotta let it go
Yeah, yeah we gotta stop this girl
She's ruined my friend
She's still ain't my friend
Don't worry, don't worry

Yeah, yeah we gotta let it go
Yeah, yeah we gotta stop this girl
She's ruined my friend
She's still ain't my friend
Don't worry, I'll never change you for a girl
