In these days I felt so down
So I start to write about our dreams,
And our fears, and anything we used to be,
Was wrong.

An right now I have to see
And in these nights I think above the things
You have pronounced.
I cannot breath without you here.
For too long
And I want you to know...

I'm trying to find,
The way I could not give it up without you,
Baby I'm not going to call you, not tonight
I told all my friends I'm not looking back at these empty promises
But I can't believe that every word you said,

It's still running through my head

Build for me a time machine
I will chase the past
To fix it all into a dream,
I swear to god, I'll make you see
Whatever you want, even if it is wrong
Cause it's too late to change the world without you

I'm trying to find,
The way I could not give it up without you,
Baby I'm not going to call you, not tonight
I told all my friends I'm not looking back at these empty
promises
But I can't believe that every word you said,

It's still running through my head
(Its still running through my head)
(Its still running through my head)

I'm trying to find,
The way I could not give it up without you,
Baby I'm not going to call you, not tonight

I told all my friends I'm not looking back at these empty
promises
But I can't believe that every word you said,

I'm trying to find,
The way I could not give it up without you,
Baby I'm not going to call you, not tonight
I told all my friends I'm not looking back at these empty
promises
But I can't believe that every word you said
