Living Like Us and Sharing Our Day.
In Another World Very Far Away
A Different Existence, Yet Virtually the Same.
Aggression Is Sadness and Laughter Is Pain

Look Deep Into Their Eyes For What They Have to Say
Emotions Take Control of Life Everyday.

Unpredictable Variations of Behaviour,
Hold the Key to the Mental Door
Where Nothing Is Everything, and Everything Is Nothing

Staring Beyond the Wall a Thousand Times Over

Seeing a Part of Them That Is Real
Just Imagine How It Might Feel
To Be Denied of What Life Has to Give
Behind Mental Shadows They Must Live

Look Deep Into Their Eyes, For What They Have to Say
Emotions Take Control of Life Everyday
