

Broken Society "Conceit"

Visit "Conceit" on MotoLyrics.com

Living in a tired nation where millions died before
To protect our national security, to protect it from the poor
A nation where corporate influence will never be without,
Still the best in the world you say it makes me wanna shout!

Why should we be complacent with all the shit we've got,
We could do so much better but you just sit and rot

Why do we become the sheep, just a number not a name,
Settle for what we're born into just a pawn in their fucking game!

Where's the freedom?
Where's the justice?
Where's the equality?
Your flag doesn't mean shit to me!
