I told you no, not once but twice
And I need to learn to take my own advice
I told you yes after you confessed
That without me, you feel like such a mess

I can sleep so heavily
When you say that you're mad at me
I can breathe so steadily
After you say you're done with me

Something is wrong with my mind
Because you're in it all of the time
And I crossed your name off my list
Because you turned out just like the rest

I got a parachute just for my heart
So when I fall for you, it won't fall apart
And if your gonna cheat, well your goin' back to start
I think I'm in love with you, but you make things so damn hard

Something is wrong with my mind
Because you're in it all of the time
And I crossed your face out of the picture
Because now you say that your in love with her

You took my heart, just like before
And now I'm left here on the floor
You say you want me, then you don't
No one can fix what you broke
I don't know what you're trying to find
But could you please make up your mind?
I need a boy that gives me more affection
Than he gives his own damn reflection

(In Background:What is written above.)
Something is wrong with my mind
Because you're in it all of the time
And I crossed your face out of the picture
Because now you say that your in love with her
