So you want to start a revolution and make those in power pay
For all their crimes and scandals, insane laws they made you obey
But no one seems to listen nothing seems to change
The system has a barrier, won't let you rearrange

So it all seems so hopeless, you feel abandoned by the state

You see yourself conceding, no food left on your plate
But don't think for a second, there's nothing we can do We just need to stick together, the virus, the chosen few

Fight the system from within!

We're a virus!
System virus!
We're a virus!
System virus!
