Been breaking down these walls
Learning where to fall
The world is gonna end some day

Hate we can't escape
And love wont come our way
Cause the world is gonna end some day

And I will prove to you
Exactly what I can do.

Tell me tell me tell me how to live my life
And I will live to satisfy.

Your daddy is a monster
We're all living in foster.
Everything is not ok.

Your mommy smokes those cigarettes
Maybe that's where you get it.
Everything is not ok.

You don't need to hate the world
Just hate people in it.

So tell me tell me tell me how to live my life
And I will only live to satisfy

Failing school since the 9th grade
But I know you'll be something great
Everything will be ok.

Your growing up to fast
Don't leave me in the past
Everything will be ok.

And we we don't need to figure out
If there's such thing as heaven

So tell me tell me tell me how to live my life
And I will live to satisfy
