I lose
It's nothin' new to me
I fail
I do my best but it all rolls downhill
I try to make you look when I pass by
But nothin' ever works

I'm through with the pain
Now I'm gonna win
And my world won't ever be the same

It was written in the stars
It was set in the stone
I'm not gonna win
But I can't stay alone

You move
Slowly farther from me
You pale
When I come close enough to feel
You cry
At home alone at night
But nothin' ever works

You can't stop my pain
But you say you're gonna try
And I love you all the same

It was dyed in the wool
It was set in the stone
We're gonna run like hell
I won't leave you alone

I win
It's somethin' new to me
You look
And ya finally see
