They said not to rush
They said hold it in till the end
Price you pay for being bold
I've lost another friend

It happened again to me
I'm away from where I wanna be
She won't talk at all
And she won't stop my fall

I do things my way
And I do things for myself
I'm not one to stay silent
And she has me goin' through hell

I need a new drug to use
NOthing she says is clear
Got nothing left to lose
Cause I only see gray here

It happened again to me
I'm away from where I wanna be
She won't talk at all
And she won't stop my fall

It happened again to me
I'm away from where I wanna be
She won't talk at all
And she won't stop my fall
