I guess I'm alone
And I guess it's just the distance
I pick up the phone
But I'm not sure who will listen

I guess I'm insane
And I guess my life is one big blur
I can't remember my name
And I can't remember her

Why'd I have to leave?
Why'd we have to grow apart
Why does circumstance
Tear out your heart?

I guess I keep thinkin'
And I guess it's cause it's all I know
I can't stop drinking
And drownin' it all slow

Why'd you have to stay?
Why'd we have to call it quits?
Why did I get a simple "goodbye"
And why is that it?

Why'd I have to leave?
Why'd we have to grow apart
Why does circumstance
Tear out your heart?

Why can't I think
Why can't I see
That guessin'
Ain't brinign you back to me
