If i just walk away and don't try to explain then would you follow me? if i give into you and pretend that it's new could it ruin me? tell me what you're thinking. i'm feeling like i'm running circles. am i really leaving this time? what if i move on? i wonder, will you make it through another night? if i move on, i worry, will you be alright? it's the price that you pay for deciding too late if you can sacrifice. it's believing that you make the choices you do to make it through the night. (repeat chorus) i've been slipping away from you. you keep coming around again. if i just walk away and don't try to explain then would you follow me
