Verse 1:

I started my ride the other day
I'm heading for noway to stay
I told her that I just had to see
A destination were I'm free
Ohohh

Chorus:

Why do you always have to leave
She cried and begged me on her knees
Why do you always have to leave
She cried and shared a million tears

Verse 2:

I didn't want to hurt you to
But this craving's burning so true
So I'm leaving with this train
Wherever it takes me
But the final station where I'm free
Where I'm free, where I'm free

[Chorus]

Sometimes it all makes sense
You live and you die
You only get one chance
So don't be afraid to follow your heart
Ohohh

[Chorus x2]
