One of these mornings you will wake up
Before it's too late, you will say stuff
And one of these mornings
You will rise and shine
My love

Hold on, hold on
I believe in a change to come
Hold on, hold on
My sweet and beloved one
Hold on, hold on

Under a blue sky, we will find things
Away from the cruel nights
Away from the mean streets
And under a blue sky, we'll be free
One day
My love

Chorus:
Hold on, hold on
I believe in a change to come
Hold on, hold on
My sweet and beloved one
Hold on, hold on
I believe in a change to come
Hold on, hold on

I see no reason
Hanging around
The things that got us here
Is bringing us down

Hold on, hold on
I believe in a change to come
Hold on, hold on
My sweet and beloved one
Hold on, hold on
I believe in a change to come
Hold on, hold on
