It was a night, we were driving around
Moon light made us almost blind
I looked at you; you were sweet as can be
We didn't know how evil faith could be
Too soon
We just wanna ride

Hush little baby, don't say a word
I'll lead you right in this world
I'm driving around while the sun goes down
Memories of you comes alive
Oohooh, so alive

Early morning I wake up to this nightmare
We were kissing among the trays
Not aware of the trouble that would hunt us
We thought we were safe in this world of love
Too soon
We just wanna ride

Hush little baby, don't say a word
I'll lead you right in this world
I'm driving around while the sun goes down
Memories of you comes alive
Oohooh, so alive

Don't you feel alive?

We couldn't find a reason why
We couldn't use a lie
I couldn't find an answer why
How could my love just die?

Oohooh, so alive

Hush little baby
Don't say a word
I'll lead you right in this world
Driving around while the sun goes down
Memories of you comes alive
Oohooh, so alive

Feel alive...
