Haven't you heard
The day I first met her
She changed my world
How could I just let her
She had me right then
Oh, from hell to heaven
How could I let her go

Another day
Can't find my way now that she's gone
- And now that she's gone
An endless night
Can't see the light now that she's gone
- Can I can't go on
Now that she's gone

She turned black to white
Still I couldn't find it
She made my wrongs feel right
And now I feel blinded

She had me right then
Oh, from hell to heaven
How could I let her go

Another day...

The end has begun
It's taken some time but now I know
The moon and the sun
They share the same heaven
Still I let you go

Another day...
