Verse 1:

As the sun and the stars and the moon
You and I are different but still in tune (mhmm)
And I see no reason of being apart
And all those times I had a hundred thoughts

Chorus:

But I have to believe when the feeling hits me like the sound of a drum
(Hits me like the sound of a drum)
Ooh
And I'm still getting lost in the feeling you are the one
Ooh
I have to believe when the feeling hits me like the sound of a drum
(Hits me like the sound of a drum)
Ooh
And I'm still getting lost in the feeling you are the one

Verse 2:

As the wind in the streets were I walk
The emotion's getting cold when I'm alone in the dark (mhmm)
I really don't know, it happened so fast
But please, one more time, let's try to make this last

.:Chorus:.

Believe in me, believe in you
If you believe, it might come true
Believe in you, believe in me
If you are the one, the one for me
Believe in me, believe in you
