We stand here trapped and so angry

These walls are crumbling down around me.
We've never got any money
It never seems to be around anymore.

So c'mon
C'mon release me
Baby
Only if you could.
C'mon
C'mon relieve me
Darlin'

This boy ain't what he should be tonight.

This is no big
Big moment
Can't see a second chance.
They'd even stop us from dancing
And try to end our romance.
The emptiness that surrounds me
This inner city decay

It doesn't stop me from waiting to live our life our own way.

So c'mon
C'mon release me
Baby
Only if you could. . . .
So c'mon
C'mon release me
Baby
Only if you could. . . .

This boy ain't what he should be tonight.
This boy ain't what he should be tonight.
This boy ain't what he should be tonight.
This boy ain't what he should be tonight.
C'mon release me

Baby
C'mon relieve me
Darlin'

C'mon release me
Baby
C'mon relieve me
Darlin'.

The same the whole world over
No love to save our souls.
Some people think it's funny
Already reached their goals.
Preaching victorian values
Now in this day and age.
No wonder we're still angry
We can't contain our rage anymore.

So c'mon
C'mon release me
Baby
Only if you could. . . .
So c'mon
C'mon release me
Baby
Only if you could. . . .
C'mon release me
Baby
C'mon relieve me
Darlin'.
C'mon release me
Baby
C'mon relieve me
Darlin'.
C'mon release me
Baby
C'mon relieve me
Darlin'.
C'mon release me
Baby
C'mon relieve me
Darlin'.
